

Dear Parents/Guardians:

We are excited about your interest in Camp Erin® South Florida!

Camp Erin is a free grief camp for youth grieving the death of a significant person in their lives. Kids and teens ages 6 to 17 attend a camp experience that combines grief support with fun camp activities. Led by bereavement professionals and caring volunteers, Camp Erin provides a safe environment for children, teens, and their adult caregivers to explore their grief, learn essential coping skills, and make friends with peers who are also grieving. Through our partnership with Eluna Network, we're glad to bring Camp Erin to the South Florida community!

To register for Camp Erin, please complete the following steps.

1. SUBMIT A CAMPER APPLICATION: Complete and submit one camper application per youth to CampErin@catholichospice.org. Please also attached a copy of your youth's health insurance card (if applicable).
2. COMPLETE A FAMILY INTERVIEW: After receiving your application, a Camp Erin team member will contact you to schedule a Family Interview (one per family) to review your application and help familiarize your family with our camp program. The interview will also help us to get to know your potential camper and determine their readiness for camp and if Camp Erin fits their current needs.
3. ATTEND "SAVE YOUR SPOT" CAMPER ORIENTATION: "Save Your Spot" is an opportunity for you and your camper to meet our Camp Erin Team and other campers, and learn more about what to expect at camp. Attendance is required and will confirm your camper's spot a camp. Details of "Save Your Spot" to follow the Family Interview.
4. ATTEND CAMP: Once you have completed the above steps, the only step left is for your camper to attend camp! After attending Camp Erin the first time, campers are able to return each year.

If you have any questions or need assistance completing your application, please contact our team by phone at (954) 944-2709 or by e-mail at CampErin@catholichospice.org.

All the best,
The Camp Erin South Florida Team
